Overview of Commission projects

Pavilion Shore Pictures

Kathy Crawford met with Jeff Muck to discuss the historical photo display that is supposed to be in the newly built Pavilion at Pavilion Shore Park.

To be installed before Pour on the Shore

Novi Cemetery Updates

Kathy talked to him about the drop-off at the back of the Novi Road Cemetery

A gate with a lock on it was placed on the road to stop people from driving too far back.

Cement blocks at the cemetery are being used for restoration at the

We got a topographical map of the cemetery and sent it to Roy Prentice to ensure we can map the trees

The city has completed the GPS of all of the headstones

Looking to see if we can identify hand carved headstones vs catalog ordered headstones.

Electronic and Physical paper invitations

ask for RSVP by September 1st

Refreshments provided

Include commission members names

Ask people to park at Panera and Across Novi Road, if people park in the cemetery, they need to pull around the whole loop

Invites go to

Library Board, Friends of the Library, City Council, Parks and Rec

Foundation, Parks and Rec, Cheryl Walsh, Wendy

Invites will go out August 19th

We want to present a history of the cemetery, notable names; ie: Someone who was at the meeting when they decided on the name: NOVI.

Meet 6pm Monday, August 14th to plan the Walk-A-Bout

Kathy wants to provide the guests with a folder/pamphlet with information in it.

We want to tell an interesting story

CITY COUNCIL REQUEST:

Have the names of any Veterans who were "killed in action" to be placed on the marker at City Hall.

Kathy Crawford needs to have a meeting with Wayne Wrobel explaining the potential pitfalls of a project with this. We need to decide what war, what "killed in action" means, will we include POW MIA? What defines "Novi residents",

Before we can start on any research, the City Council needs to help us define the parameters. It will be a huge task.
